

the interval between the spring and summer semesters at the University of Wisconsin this year.

The spring session officially closes with commencement Saturday and the regular 16-week summer semester opens with registration Monday and Tuesday. Classes start Wednesday and close Sept. 16.

Several thousand are expected to attend the full length, summer semester, the second in the university's history. More will enroll soon for the regular eight-week summer session for graduates, teachers and others, which opens June 24.

The summer enrollment includes 2,500 servicemen and medical students stationed here.

Fourteen special educational institutes, workshops, conferences, and clinics are planned. The university's school of education is planning to operate laboratory schools in conjunction.

point of names. From Hungary, Turkey comes the report that the fuhrer has rushed five divisions into Bulgaria from Serbia in an effort to prevent a conflagration which would endanger his whole position in eastern Europe.

Meanwhile mighty Russia, whose victorious armies stand on the alert at the northern gateway to the Balkans, is pressing Bulgaria to desert Hitler. Indeed, last midnight reportedly was the deadline of an ultimatum from Moscow to quit. The alternative was said to be severance of relations.

Thus far there has been no official indication of whether there was actually an ultimatum, or whether the ghost rattled his chains at midnight.

Divided Against Itself

Bulgaria is divided against itself. On the one hand is a government which is clinging to Germany in hope of profiting by the unholy alliance. On the other is a public whose heart is with the Russians—brother Slavs. The bond of race is strong among the Slavic folk.

So the Bulgarian people are seething with rebellion against the government. Indeed travelers arriving in Turkey from Bulgaria say there has been a revolt among Bulgarian troops. However, the government can't bear the thought of giving up the thousands of square miles of Yugoslav and Greek territory which Bulgaria grabbed after Hitler overran those countries in 1941. The Bulgars didn't even participate in the fighting.

Food Rationing to Last For Duration

Washington—(P)—The food supply is good and will remain good for some months, but rationing "of one type of food or another" will be with us for the duration.

This in summary is the finding of the office of war information in an exhaustive and cautiously optimistic report on the food outlook.

People "all along the line from the plow to the plate" have made the food situation as good as it is, OWI said, but it added the food hate cannot be considered won until much more is accomplished.

Specifically, 4,000,000 city folk are said to be needed to help the smallest farm population in three decades harvest the biggest crop planting in history.

Paper Says FDR Has Drafted Peace Plan

New York—(P)—The administration has drafted and soon will make public a peace plan similar to the world order outlined by Prime Minister Winston Churchill, the New York Times said today in a dispatch from Washington.

The Times reported that the plan is said to foresee in its present state the creation of a world council of the great powers, which would provide the necessary power to enforce peace, and a world assembly of all other peace-loving powers.

NAVIGATOR—Orlando A. Krupka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Krupka, Route 1, Milladore, successfully completed his navigation training on May 20 at Hondo army air field, Hondo, Texas. A second lieutenant, Krupka is now one of a group of aerial experts trained to find targets by day or night. "We'll find the way," is the slogan of the AAF's skilled "compass men."

CAPTAIN PRAISES 'WALLY' SCHUETZ

Homage was paid the late Wallace James Schuetz, aviation machinist mate second class, whose parents recently received word he had been killed in action.

A letter from his commanding officer, Capt. T. P. Jeter—says— "I wish to express to you and the members of the family my deepest sympathy in regard to your son Wallace James Schuetz, aviation machinist's mate second class, U. S. naval reserve, who was killed in action.

He was fatally wounded by anti-aircraft fire while performing his duty in attacking the enemy. In these unhappy days I want you to know that we share your heavy grief.

"Wallace was buried at sea this afternoon, on another carrier on which the plane in which he was glimmer had landed. He was given a funeral with full military honors and the chaplain conducted the services.

"Your son's keen interest in the navy, and the excellent manner in which he carried out his duties had won for him the high regard of his associates. His loyalty, courage, and fine character gained for him the affection of all those who had the good fortune to know him personally. Wallace is the type of young man that the navy can ill afford to lose, and he will be greatly missed by all of us.

"While there can be no consolation for the loss of a loved one, it is hoped that you may derive some comfort, as time goes by, in knowing that Wallace died in the service of his country and that his death contributes to the victory over our

There are lots of Polish votes in the tenth district. Progressive for FDR The third district congressional candidacy of Olaf H. Johnson of Westby, gives an example of the division in the Progressive party as regards the Roosevelt administration.

One wing has been critical, declaring for concentration on development of a better democracy at home before making heavy international commitments. At the recent Progressive convention, Senator LaFollette denounced the New Deal as having a "tarnished record."

In announcing his candidacy, Johnson lauded the president and declared for a fourth term, saying Mr. Roosevelt's "qualities of great leadership are sorely needed to carry our nation forward to victory and to win and achieve a lasting peace."

Changes in Listerup The Democratic state office ticket announced yesterday by National Committeeman Thomas R. King shows a shift in candidates from the list endorsed by the Wausau state convention.

King has become a candidate for treasurer, a post for which it was announced Julius Seyfert of Eagle River would run. The convention endorsed State Senator Anthony P. Gawronski of Milwaukee for secretary of state but the new slate
