Vocational School Holds Picnic At Lake WaZeeCha

About 100 vocational students and faculty are picnicking this afternoon at Lake WaZeeCha. A number of sports events have been carefully planned, among which are tug-of-war, sack race, potato race, relay and a softball game, followed by a dance in the lodge.

The group will assemble at 5:30 o'clock for a very delicious picnic lunch that has been prepared by the homemaking department.

This morning at 10:45 o'clock an assembly was held of all students, at which time honor awards were presented in behalf of the board of vocational and adult education by Director W. A. Sprise. These awards were given to students who have been neither absent nor tardy the past year. Honor awards were presented to William Menehan, Elaine Arndt, Violet Kruger, Loretta Panzer and Lorraine Panzer.

In addition, 15 certificates of completion were presented to part-time students who have met all local part-time attendance requirements as well as state requirements. The students who have become 18 years of age and were eligible for these certificates are: Constance G. Langsdorf, Jacquelyn A. DuPre, Dorothy L. Engel, Evelyn Golomski, Lucille C. Lankowski, Betty J. Rogers, Arlene Whitrock, Robert E. Firth, Joseph E. Fritsche, Edward J. Panzer, Herbert J. Ruder, Clarence M. Whitrock and Doris M. Ellingworth.

Report cards for those attending part-time were presented at this assembly, while report cards for the half-time group will be presented Thursday morning at the usual assembly period.

Thursday will mark the close of the vocational school this year.

THE SITUATION: Your teenage daughter is giving an evening party.

WRONG WAY: Stay in the living room all evening to act as chaperon.

RIGHT WAY: Stay at home, but retire to your own room, or otherwise make yourself inconspicuous. (You should be at home, but you will cramp the style of the teenagers if you stay in the same room with them all evening.)

THE SITUATION: You have a caller with a small child, who seems bent on getting hold of one of your breakable, prize possessions.

WRONG WAY: Pretend not to notice what he is doing, hoping that his mother will stop him in time.

RIGHT WAY: Say to the child, "You want something to play with, don't you?" Then get him something else and put the prized object out of his reach.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Ketchum, city, announce the birth of a son on Tuesday, May 30, at Riverview hospital.

HAILS NEW HORIZONS

With new worlds to conquer and new careers to cultivate, the 1944 graduate faces a changing world. Uncertainty in a war-raging world crosses their paths; but one thing remains certain—never changing!... and that is the fundamental rules of establishing a sound, personal credit... Financial worth has little to do with it. Strict adherence to established terms, or promises made, is most vital. It is true, that often unforeseen occurrences make it impossible, but a prompt, and frank statement of facts to the Creditor, and an arrangement of extended payment will not impair your credit rating.

Graduates will do well to make the establishment of a good credit rating their first objective!
