

Looking 'Em Over With Don Unferth

WELL MISS YOU, JOE!

Another fine athlete from the Tri-City area has been killed in action on the Pacific war front.

Hardly had the sad news about Sammy Cronin died when the war department report telling of the death of Joe Godrich came through.

We offer our sympathy, small solace that it may be, to Joe's dad and mother and to his brother, Jim, who is at Camp Aterbury, Ind.

They have lost a son and a brother. Wisconsin Rapids has lost an excellent sportsman and a good friend.

Joe wrote to us from New Guinea last fall, a short time before he moved on up to the Philippines where he finally paid for our freedom with his life.

Even down in New Guinea, where the Japs lurked everywhere, Joe's chief thoughts were of home and athletics.

He said that he was very glad to learn about the Junior Baseball league which was started in 1944 in the Rapids and he felt that it was too bad that the league hadn't been started years before.

When Joe lived here he used to kind of promote games in a big field near his house. A short while ago, he sent word back home to his folks to get his baseball equipment to the neighborhood "kids."

There were 23 entries in the trial. Judges were Otto Beyrer, Briggsville and Al Ruhland, Beaver Dam.

Running of the events began at 9:30 Sunday morning, with the field events. The water events started at 12:30, lasting until 5 o'clock.

Then came the finals for the seven dogs still in the running.

In the Puppy stake, Tipper, a springer owned by Francis Shymanski, Wisconsin Rapids, finished first.

Remaining Entries The remainder of the entries included Pal, an American brown owned by A. H. Treutel; Vic, springer spaniel, Lawrence Marcoux; Duke, springer, R. Applebee; Skipper, Labrador, Paul Sumner; Sandy, golden retriever, Walter Hemp; Bonnie, springer, Roger Heger; a springer, owned by Norman Monson, Teddy, mixed, Ira Gilbertson; Jack, American brown, F. Rice; Topper, springer, Frank Shymanski, all of Wisconsin Rapids.

Birchmont Duke II, Labrador, Thomas J. O'Brien, Auburndale; Apache, golden retriever, Peter O. Pesonon, Wausau; Coco, Walter Schmit, Beaver Dam; and King, American brown, R. J. Cleveland, Neokosa.

Rapids Nine Opens Home Slate With Pointers Sunday

WAUSAU DOG IS FIRST IN TRIAL

Sandy's Fritz, a German short hair, owned by John Weichmann of Wausau, took first place in the Stevens Point city nine invades Witter field for a clash with this year's edition of the Wisconsin Rapids baseball club.

The contest is slated to begin at promptly 2:30.

The visitors will have the advantage of having already played two games this season. Last Sunday, the Pointers split a doubleheader at the Point with the Buena Vista and Junction City clubs.

The Point squad licked Buena Vista, 4-2, but lost out in extra innings to Junction City, 6-5.

Anxious For First Test Meanwhile, Wisconsin Rapids has yet to meet the test of actual game competition this season. However, the Rapids nine, under the watchful eyes of Co-Managers Bert Dietzler and Monty Smith, has held several drills during the past three weeks and is anxious to see how far it has progressed.

Sunday's fray with the rival Point outfit should give local fans a good idea of the type of amateur ball that will be on display in central Wisconsin this summer.

Six veterans form the nucleus of the Rapids club. Back from last year's nine are Outfielders Art Pfahmer, Monty Smith and Dick Smith; Third Baseman Dave Barillette, Second Baseman Jack Gill, Pitcher Bert Dietzler and Outfielder-Pitcher "Red" Gaetke.

In last night's drill at Witter field, held despite a cold, brisk wind, a few other candidates showed promise of being of some help to the local aggregation.

A veteran of many a baseball war in the old Portage and Wood County circuits, Angil Pierce, worked out with the Rapids last night. Pierce can either pitch or catch and he donned the receiving logs last evening in an abbreviated tilt between two squads.

Other possibilities "Red" Preston displayed some ability at first base and Darl Marvin, a Junior league product, looked good behind the plate. Other possibilities for Sunday's game are H. Nelson and Bob Gazeley, catchers; "Bus" Stenerson, first base, and Bill Heaman, infielder.

The Pointers boast a three-man pitching staff, any one of whom may start on the hill here Sunday. Bob Hartman, fancy guard on Point's Valley championship cage, is one while the others are Paul Creuger and Bob Lukesavage.

Two other Point prep cagers are with the baseball team—Gerardo Haidvogel and Ken Kluck.

Dietzler and Gaetke are likely to handle the hurling chores for the Rapids.

RAPIDS PINMEN TAKE PART IN STATE TOURNEY

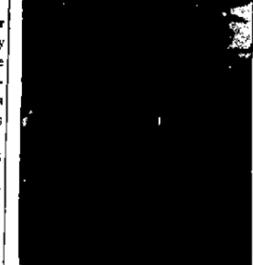

John Konkol and Johnny Kuenz, among a group of Wisconsin Rapids bowlers who traveled to Milwaukee Saturday to participate in the Wisconsin state bowling tournament, took high honors in the doubles division for the local keglers, with a combined score of 1153.

Konkol rolled a game of 170-208-160 for a 547 series, Kuenz turning in games of 246-163-197 for 606. His 606 series and 246 game was high for the local entrants in the forty-third annual tournament.

Other doubles series were E. Taylor-H. Gross, 1089; M. Hein-H. Sowaatzke, 1073; G. Tess-F. Kaja, 1040; M. Vandell-H. Braem, 1002; M. Trantow-E. Andrews, 965; J. Calvi-C. Miller, 964; A. Peterson-A. Tess, 868.

Thess Hits 604 In the singles division, Glenn Tess rolled a 604 series, high score for the local entrants. His games were 223-157-224. Other singles series were J. Kuenz, 583; E. Taylor, H. Gross, F. Kaja, all 569; E. Andrews, 561; H. Sowaatzke, 555; H. Braem, 552; C. Miller, 547; J. Konkol, 513; M. Vandell, 511; M. Trantow, 502; J. Calvi, 499; A. Peterson, 497; M. Hein, 492; A. Schill, 473.

Miller's team of the Rapids rolled a 2782 series, Calvi, 2445, and Krohn and Berard 2554.

BEST RAPIDS DOG - Vernon Strehlow's fine Chesapeake dog whose name is Bing, took third place Sunday in the Mead Dog Retriever trial to finish highest among Wisconsin Rapids dogs entered in the meet. A Wausau dog, Sandy's Fritz, owned by John Weichmann, took first place.

WITTER FIELD IS SCENE OF TRACK CLASSIC

The record book is expected to take a beating at Witter field Friday night when half a dozen Wisconsin Valley conference school clash in a renewal of the annual Valley conference track and field meet, after a lapse of a decade.

At least five record holders are destined to be dethroned in the colorful carnival, which begins under the lights at 7:10 and will run approximately two hours.

Valley schools participating in Friday's classic are Wisconsin Rapids, Wausau, Stevens Point, Merrill, Rhinelander and Neokosa.

The schedule of events is as follows: 7:15-Pole vault, high jump, broad jump and shot put. The discus will follow the shot put.

7:30-120 yd. high hurdles-trials. 7:40-100 yd. dash-trials. 8:00-100 yd. dash-finals. 8:05-120 yd. high hurdles-finals.

8:15-half mile. 8:20-200 yd. dash-trials. 8:30-200 yd. low hurdles-trials. 8:40-mile. 8:50-200 yd. dash-finals. 9:00-200 yd. low hurdles-finals. 9:10-half mile relay.

An athlete may participate in three events in the meet, not more than two of which are running events. Also, a youth can participate in only one race over 220 yards and the relay counts as an event.

Medals will be given to all contestants winning first places. The conference donates a trophy to the winning team.

Records are certain to be set in the 200-yard dash and the 200-yard low-hurdles. The last time a Wisconsin Valley conference track meet was held, these events were both 20-yards longer than the present distance. Also, the discus mark seems doomed as the discus now used in high school is a pound lighter than the one with which "Chuck" Sparhawk set a record of 110 ft., 11 in. back in 1931.

Others likely to fall Other marks which appear to be seriously menaced are the mile and pole vault records.

Five of the 13 Wisconsin Valley track records are held by Wisconsin Rapids athletes. Grandkok holds the mile mark, "Webb" Berard the low hurdles, in which he is tied with Parks of Stevens Point, Bill Kohnen the high hurdles, Foley the broad jump and the Lincoln High school relay quartet that team mark.

Well over 100 athletes will participate in the renewal of the Wisconsin Valley conference track meet, scheduled for Witter field Friday night under the lights.

Wisconsin Rapids and Wausau are expected to place the largest number of athletes in the classic. Lincoln High's track mentor, J. A. Tolrasan, has entered 22 youths in tomorrow evening's meet. Wausau's list of entries had not yet been received here this morning, but the Lumberjack eligibility list was the largest sent in by any school.

A. A. Ritchey, Lincoln High principal, is the meet manager. Carl Klundrud will act as starter, Henry Jacobson clerk of court and Edgar Bird official scorer. Angus McDougall and Harold Samuelson are the timers while the judges are Delbert Rowland, Lloyd Nell, John Plenke, Jr., Harry Klappa and Henry Groch.

Alfred Hornigold and Hein are track inspectors while Robert Miller is pit inspector. In the field events, Walter Hemp will be chief judge in the shot put, Stanley Stark in the pole vault, Hugh Sargent in the high jump and Randolph Faeklan in the discus.

Hancock - A three-run rally in the fifth inning enabled Hancock High school to down Plainfield's prep nine here Friday afternoon, 7-5.

Plainfield - Plainfield High's track team opened its outdoor season here Monday afternoon by handing a green but willing Hancock team a 65 to 30 trouncing.

Plainfield - Wautoma High school fell before a barrage of Plainfield base hits in a baseball game here Tuesday afternoon, going down to defeat, 15-6.

Hancock - A three-run rally in the fifth inning enabled Hancock High school to down Plainfield's prep nine here Friday afternoon, 7-5.

Junior Team Will Practice Thursday The Johnson & Hill baseball team of the Junior Baseball league will hold a practice at Witter field at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, Manager "Pete" Hulter announced today.

Any players who are not the property of Junior league teams are urged to report for the drill, along with the last year's members of the J. & H. nine.

Lincoln High Seniors Trounce Underclassmen In Track Meet, 73-38

The Lincoln High school seniors demonstrated their track and field superiority over the junior, sophomore and freshman classes by walloping the underclassmen in a meet at Witter field Friday afternoon, 73-38.

Highlight of the meet was the excellent time racked up in the mile by Manske, Coach J. A. Tolrasan's senior distance runner. Manske ran the mile in 4:45.3 which is seven seconds lower than the Wisconsin Valley conference record, set by Grandkokki of Wisconsin Rapids 13 years ago.

Another good effort came in the 440-yard dash when Senior Tom Dupree broke the tape first in 34.6, which is his best time to date.

The seniors capped firsts in nine of the 13 events, with Don Murgatroy showing the way with three firsts—in the 100, discus and pole vault. Darrel Dawe, sophomore, tallied two of the underclassmen's four firsts.

Coach Tolrasan announced this morning that his freshman-sophomore track squad will meet Coach Bob Master's Adams-Friendship High school track team in a dual match at Witter field at 4 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

Pooling their manpower successfully for the second time this spring, the Lincoln High school freshman-sophomore track team trounced Adams-Friendship High school's thimble at Witter field Tuesday afternoon, 57 1/2 to 28 1/2.

Several weeks ago, the local youngsters raced over Plainfield High. The high and low hurdles and the pole vault were eliminated from the afternoon's state, in view of the fact that the Green Devils had no entries in those events. In all, 10 events were run off, with the Lincoln High underclassmen scoring firsts in eight of them.

High point man for the Rapids squad was Jim Dupree, with firsts in the 200-yard dash and the 440. John Ritchey finished close behind with nine markers on a first, second and third. Mike Kruger followed with eight counters.

Edwin "Chief" Williams and Burt Morris led the visitors with eight points apiece. Each racked up one of A-F's two firsts, Morris getting his in the shot and Williams in the discus.

Wisconsin Rapids scored the only dual when Dupree, Kruger and Darrel Dawe finished in that order in the quarter-mile.

Yesterdays matches were played at the Tri-City course. Coach Klundrud plans eliminations again Friday of this week and next Monday.
