

Miss Mavis A. Des Bouillons, R. Kuehl Wed

Two Nekoosa young people, Mavis Ann Des Bouillons and Raymond Claude Kuehl were united in marriage in a quiet ceremony at the Baptist parsonage here by the Rev. F. F. Knickerbocker on Saturday, March 21, at 5 p. m. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Olson.

The couple planned to spend a few days in Milwaukee before returning to Nekoosa to reside. Mr. Kuehl is employed by the Nekoosa-Edwards Paper company.

Eastern Star

Meeting at the Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening, with a large attendance, Rainbow Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, had the grand sentinel, Fred Walch and Mrs. Walch as distinguished guests. Honored guests were Mrs. L. E. Bandt, a past Martha, of Belleville, Ill., and Miss Margaret McClellan, a member at Fond du Lac.

After the chapter routine, a program, with Mrs. Floyd Smith and Mrs. H. B. Richmond as co-chairmen, was presented. Roger Hornig played several saxophone solos accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Horning. "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," a musical reading dramatized by James Whitcomb Riley was given by Mrs. Alex Perodin assisted by Mrs. Don Smart at the piano. Mrs. George Wilcox as the "maid in calico" and Mrs. Orville Oakes as the "bashful, barefoot beau." Miss Dorothy Nommensen sang two selections accompanied by Miss Helen Frederickson. M. W. Schroeder concluded the program with movies of Pearl Harbor, the sinking of the Normandie and, in color, the "Family Album."

A delicious buffet lunch, at a table decorated with Easter eggs, ducks, purple tapers and a huge basket of yellow jonquils, was served by Mrs. Howard Fleming and her committee.

Circle Four

For devotionals at Wednesday's meeting of Methodist Circle Four at the home of Mrs. Albert Sparks, Mrs. Walter Peterson read the story of Jesus. This was followed by prayer. Roll call was taken, each member responding with a Bible verse. After a short business session the group joined in saying the Lord's prayer.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially, the hostess conducting several contests at which Mrs. Charles Rabuck and Mrs. M. Williams won prizes. Refreshments were then served to the eight members and seven guests present.
