

Church to Hold Flag Dedication Service Sunday

A special service has been arranged for Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock at Immanuel Lutheran church to dedicate a church flag and an American flag, presented to the church by one of the congregation's families.

John Podratz, Arthur Polansky, Frank Rickman and E. J. Schmidt will act as color bearers and color guard for the posting of the flags to be followed by the pledge of allegiance to both.

The service, arrangements for which were in charge of Erwin Gleue and Frank Rickman, will include an appropriate sermon by the Rev. E. G. Kuechle, and close with the hymn, "God Bless Our Lads," dedicated to the boys in service. A special offering to augment the fund with which Christmas gifts are to be purchased and sent to the 56 men in service will be received.

Give Tuberculin Tests at Schools Here Next Week

Tuberculin tests will be given Wisconsin Rapids school children next week, on Tuesday and Wednesday, School Nurse Mary Zapp announced today, with centers at seven of the city's school buildings.

Through the sale of Christmas Seals last year, funds are available to give the test free to high school pupils. Grade school children will be charged a 25-cent fee.

Tuesday schedule—Lincoln, 10 a. m., including Wood County Normal and model schools and Lincoln Junior high; Howe, 11 o'clock, including East Side Lutheran; SS, Peter and Paul, 1 p. m.; Irving school, 2 p. m.

Wednesday schedule—Edison, 10 a. m.; Emerson, 11 o'clock, including pupils of St. Lawrence and West Side Lutheran parochial; Lowell, 1 p. m.

A positive reaction to the test does not necessarily mean that active tuberculosis is present, Miss Zapp points out, but it reveals the lodgement of germs in the body. Positive reactions should have careful physical examination, including x-rays, to determine whether there is noticeable involvement, however. No child is to be excluded from school unless found to have active tuberculosis by the additional diagnostic aids.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Carson F. Lyman and sons David and Jerry of Washington, D. C., arrive today to spend a week at the home of Mrs. Lyman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Burt of St. Petersburg, Florida, arrived last night for a visit at the home of Mrs. Burt's sister Miss Anna McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frautschi and sons John and Jerry of Madison are guests this week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Mead.

Mrs. Bud de Bower returned to her home in Madison today after spending a few days at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sawaske.

Mrs. Paul Pratt of Milwaukee spent a few days this week at the home of her father Dr. F. X. Pomanville, returning to her home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schroeder were Thursday supper guests at the Wilbur Ott home at Eight Corners.

CHANGED THINGS
Prior to 1750, England banned bathing in sea or river. Richard Russell, popular physician of the court of King George III, published a treatise on the use of salt water as a restorative of health in that year, and succeeded in having the ban lifted.

The Congregational church with members of the Home Department as guests.

Mayflower Circle—
Members of the Mayflower Circle are advised that there is no meeting next Monday. The group is now holding meetings on the second Monday of each month.

Golden Rule Circle—
Members of the Golden Rule Circle are to meet with Mrs. E. C. Rossler on Monday at 3 p. m. Reading, James, 4th chapter.

Plymouth Circle—
Plymouth Circle of the Congregational Women's association will be entertained by Mrs. Glenn Bennett on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

GETS GLAD TIDINGS—Word of her husband's escape from the Japanese is received by Mrs. William Lloyd Osborne while at her desk at the Douglas Aircraft Co., Los Angeles. Captain Osborne, listed as missing in action on Corregidor, dodged Jap troops for six months, made his way to safety on foot, by motor and sailboat.

London Offers Hearty Welcome to Mrs. Roosevelt; Sightseers Gather Outside Royal Palace

London —(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt arose early today and breakfasted alone in her apartment at Buckingham palace as a crowd of sightseers, including many American soldiers, gathered outside the palace, hoping to see the guest of the royal family. Mrs. Roosevelt's apartment in the palace was one of those damaged by bomb blasts some time ago and its windows are partly boarded over.

Spends Busy Morning
After leaving the king and queen, she spent a busy morning conferring on plans for her tour of Britain at war. The president's wife hopes to study the part which British women are playing in the war and visit American troops in the British Isles.

Her unusually large conference, attended by more than 100 American and British reporters, was held at the United States embassy where she said she had been issued neither a gas mask nor a food ration card yet.

In response to questions, she said it was "hard to say" whether or when there would be conscription of women in the United States and that she doubted whether prohibition would be brought back although campaigners had been active since the 18-year-old draft age question arose.

Queen Entertains at Luncheon
With King George present, Queen Elizabeth entertained the American lady and 11 other women at a Buckingham palace luncheon today. Mrs. Roosevelt's son, Elliott, a lieutenant-colonel with the U. S. army air forces in Britain, dined with the royal family last night. London newspapers said their part to extend a hearty welcome to the president's wife.

Typical was a headline in the Daily Mirror, "we're sure glad to meet you, ma'am."

Girl Scout Corner

"OUR JOB, as Girl Scout leaders, now and always" is the theme of the leader's meetings that will take place at Camp Sacajawea, Monday, October 26, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Helen Peters and Mrs. E. R. Kellogg will report on the conference that they attended in October. Miss Doris Koss and Miss Gwen Cobleigh will have charge of games and songs. Frank Gavan will explain the Camp McCoy project.

This will be a joint meeting of leaders and council members. It is customary for them to meet jointly once or twice a year, and this will be the fall get-together. Mrs. Dorothy Witte, kitchen manager, will prepare the meal. The tickets are 35-cents. Reservations must be made before Sunday night. All leaders and council members are urged to attend.

Not only the Girl Scouts but also the Girl Scouts fathers are showing a tremendous interest in the improvement of the camp. Frank Gill has made it possible for the lodge to be oiled. This step toward the preservation of the lodge was badly needed. Vilas Baker is the chairman of the labor committee. H. C. Jacobson is the chairman of a committee to erect additional latrine space. Fathers of the Girl Scouts of the Howe school are taking charge of staining the last cabin that was erected. Camp McCoy Project.

It has often been said that each Girl Scout shares in the defense program. They are having an opportunity to display their ability. The girls are making ash trays for Camp McCoy. They are preparing them from shallow tin cans. If anyone has any sardine or small fruit cans, or individual pie and cake tins that they could contribute, a call at the Girl Scout office will be greatly appreciated.

The Senior Scouts have taken the chairmanship of the Camp McCoy project. Miss Carol Latrope was the hostess when the girls met at her home Monday, October 19. Any high school Girl Scout is eligible for this group. They are following the Senior Service program as it is outlined nationally. It will prepare them for community service in time of need. They are learning outdoor cooking and messenger service.

Activities
Troop 7, the Congregational Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Belter and Mrs. Thomas, went to camp for their overnight on Friday.

On Saturday night, the Rudolph Scouts had their overnight. Goblins and owls will be lurking when the Pittsville Scouts combine their overnight with a Halloween party on Friday, October 30. Mrs. G. Ritchie leads the Scouts. The Brownies, under the leadership of Mrs. Glenn, are going out on the same day to have their supper and participate in the fun.

Miscellaneous
On Friday night, November 13, the Girl Scouts will meet in a rally in observance of Girl Scout Week. Due to the uncertainty in buying, the Girl Scout candy sale will be put on in December instead of February.

Mrs. Don Lichty explained the organization of a Brownie pack at the meeting of the Edison Mother's club on Wednesday.

Girl Scout equipment may be purchased from the Girl Scout Shop, 35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill., by calling at the Girl Scout office to have the order undesignated.

Registrations must be in by November 1.

There are several troops that have been organized and as yet have no leaders. Will anyone interested kindly contact the Girl Scout office?

Anyone having material for the Girl Scout corner will kindly call Mrs. John Crook, 1720, before Thursday noon each week.

Rural Social Events

South Burr Oak—
The Women's Society held its business meeting at Mrs. Walter Jost's home on Tuesday afternoon. ## New Books at The Library

Tap Roots by James Street—The saga of the slavery-hating Dabney clan of Mississippi begins in 1858 and moves to a thunderous climax in 1865.

Simon Hastings by F. M. Tibbott—This notable period novel, a story of northern Maine during the Civil war and for a quarter of a century afterwards, is the story of Simon whose love for the woods was so great that only his love for Deborah could compete with it.

Rainbow at Dusk by Emile Loring—Young Jessamine Ramsey goes south to learn a few tricks from her eighty-two-year-old aunt. There's a defense plant, a lance of saboteurs, a parachute battalion and among other complications, three men in love with Jess.

Glass Mountain by Mary Frances Doner—In this novel, the author presents a powerful and absorbing romance which is essentially a story of Chautauqua life and the influence of this great American institution had on the lives and careers of Captain Tim Sloane and Irene Barker.

The Mediterranean by Emil Ludwig—Even better than the author's magnificent earlier work, The Nile, this outstanding volume covers the vast career of the Mediterranean and western civilization.

Van Loon's Lives by Hendrik Van Loon—In a fascinating merger of history, biography and sheer entertainment, Van Loon tells the stories of forty great men and women of the past—from Confucius and Plato to Chopin and Emily Dickinson. The reader meets them—Saint Francis, Leonardo da Vinci, Thomas Jefferson and all the others, at a series of parties in which they air their convictions and prejudices.
