

Stetsonville, and Mrs. (Arlene) Handel, Medford, grandchildren; three sons, Edward Danen, Norman and Lawrence Danen of Stetsonville; and two Mrs. William Cypher and John Habermeyer, both of Stetsonville.

sisters preceded him in

as Hruby, 79

FORD — Funeral services for Thomas Hruby, 79, Wausau, former Taylor County resident, will be held at 10 a.m. at the Sacred Heart Church at Stetsonville. Burial will be made at Stetsonville Catholic cemetery.

Funeral Home here here be Sunday noon. Rosary service will be held there at 8 p.m. on Sunday.

Hruby died at Sunny Vale Home at Wausau, Wis., on Monday, Sept. 12, 1967. He was born in Slavakia Dec. 12, 1887, and attended school there. He moved to Taylor County with his

Utility Group Announces Plans for Expansion

Wausau, Wis., Sept. 12 (AP) — The commission of Medford Electric Utility attended a hearing conducted by the Public Service Commission at Madison on Monday on the proposed building program of the utility, which has been necessitated by the need for additional expansion and the new school.

The utility is requesting permission to purchase the present substations, a new substation construction on Allman and new connecting high-voltage lines which have already been built along the east and west sides of the Black River and the Soo Line railroad tracks. The utility property across the street from the Potaczek scrap yard. The PSC was told that the cost of the expansion is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $1,200,000.

The utility needed improvements in expansion also may be undertaken to update distribution lines and lines of the utility.

ing, Madison; Mrs. Daniel (Wilfred) Nigbor, Security, Colo.; Mrs. Joseph (Donna) Arbalovsky, Spencer, and Mrs. Donald (Carol) Falkowski, Ringle; two sons, M. Sgt. Wienand Handrick, St. Louis, Mo.; and Raymond Handrick, Barrington, Ill.; two brothers, George Handrick, Minocqua; and Jacob Handrick, Mosinee; two sisters, Mrs. John Michlig, Curtiss, and Mrs. Ronald Sonnentag, Leona; and 24 grandchildren.

Two sons and a daughter preceded him in death.

Surf-Boarding Accident Fatal

David Madison, 22, an Air Force radar technician and son of former Marshfield residents Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Madison, Wausau, died at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Wadsworth Veterans Administration Hospital in Los Angeles. Death was due to a broken neck suffered in a surfing accident Sunday.

His parents, who were with him when he died, are returning tonight to Wausau, where the elder Madison operated a sign business.

David Madison attended Stout State University-Moenmonie before enlisting in the Air Force 1½ years ago.

The family came to Marshfield in 1938 and left Marshfield for Wausau in 1954. Survivors also include a sister, Mrs. Terrence (Judith) Grabeau of Wausau.

Funeral arrangements were not immediately known here.

Citizenship Course To Be Offered Here

The Marshfield Vocational School will continue to offer classes for aliens preparing for citizenship. Director J.P. Murphy reported today. The dates for the weekly classes will be announced later.

Murphy made the announcement after a published notice of similar classes to be conducted at the VTA Education Center at Wisconsin Rapids prompted queries from area residents wondering if they would have to take the citizenship course at Wisconsin Rapids.

Medford Girl Loses

was owned by Lawrence Brost, also of route 5, county officers reported. Sept 8, 1967

Bowlers Begin League Action

NEILLSVILLE — The Neillsville Women's Bowling League went into action for the 1967-68 season at Silver Dome Lanes Thursday evening. Bowling will continue Thursday evenings during the fall and winter season at 7 p.m., and at 9:15 p.m.

Sixteen teams comprise the Thursday Night League. Teams and captains are Don's Pool Hall, Genevieve Richmond; Hanson's White Horse Inn, Jana Marden; Harry's Hardware, Mildred Zaleski; Samie Ball's Standard and Taxi, Mary Ball; Pink Pony, Janice Roehl; Clark County Agency, Addie Schoenherr; Hoppa's Corner, Karen Hoppa; Lea Bros. Corporation, Bette Larshall; Urban Motors, Grace Urban; Silver Dome Lanes, Nina Sitenga; The Y, Joan Will; Schmitz Family Market, Sandra Bassette; Wildcat Inn, Ella Hoffmann; The Jaycettes, Judy Siebert; Wagon Wheel Cafe, Evelyn Walker; Diet-Rite Cola, Carol Holt.

League officers are Jana Marden, president; Nancy Tresemer, vice president; Addie Schoenherr, secretary; Ruby Stone, treasurer, and Mildred Zaleski, sergeant at arms.

Persons who would like to bowl as a substitute in the league may contact the secretary.

Fumbling Teller

NEW YORK (AP) — A fumbling teller at the Chase Manhattan Bank foiled a holdup Thursday when she couldn't find the alarm bell.

The girl, who had only been working at the bank two weeks, became a bit flustered when a man walked up and handed her a note.

"If you don't want to be hurt, put $55, $10s and $20s into the bag," the note read. "Don't trip anything."

The girl, whom police did not identify, couldn't find the alarm button—so she walked away. The would-be bandit fled.

"I got confused," the teller explained.

and son, David. Leland, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robinson and Mrs. Berniece Robinson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Paulson and sons, St. Pierre, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Frieda Holub, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCarty, and the Ed Holub family.

The Charles G. Bacon Post-Women's Relief Corps, will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, in the Legion Hall. A birthday party will be held for members who have birthdays in September.

Todd Allen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nemitz, was baptized Sunday in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church by the Rev. Norman W. Lindloff. Sponsors were Melvin Nemitz and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dux.

The Columbia Oldtimers picnic is scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 17, at Wildcat Mound. A potluck picnic dinner will be held at noon. Former and present residents of Columbia and other friends are invited.

Mrs. Mary Radtaz, Mauston, visited this week at the Nemitz and Dux homes.

Miss Lois Howard, Al Newmann, Mr. and Mrs. John Mazola Jr., and family, Milwaukee, visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howard.

Leland Northup has returned to Beloit following a visit at the home of Mrs. Jessie Beeckler.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Egger, Fond du Lac, and Mr. and Mrs. Arlyn Egger and children, Hampton, Ill., are visiting Mrs. Fern Vandenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Vandenberg and family.

Mrs. Lorraine Lincoln left Tuesday for Kenosha to enroll in a nurse training course.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Heimstad, Milwaukee, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heimstead.

Mrs. Christian Feutz and son, Donald, attended a family reunion at Randolph Sunday.

Twins Are 91

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Twin brothers celebrate their 91st birthday Saturday.

They are Harry G. Phillips of Vandergrift, Pa., and Charles A. Phillips of Meyersdale, Pa. Harry was a jeweler and optometrist for 49 years. Charles, a dealer in farm machinery for 50. Both are retired.

Divorce Granted