There was considerable damage to the upstairs of the frame house, and smoke and water damage to the furniture in both apartments.

There was no immediate estimate of the loss but it is said to be partially covered by insurance.

Tension has been mounting between Indian and Chinese patrols facing each other at Nathu La Pass, which lies at the end of a strip of Tibetan territory reaching south between Sikkim

Two patrols of about 60 men each clashed briefly with bayonets at the pass last Thursday, and the Chinese claimed two of their soldiers were wounded.

Police Investigate Two Minor Mishaps

Marshfield police investigated two minor traffic accidents Monday afternoon.

Shortly after 4 o'clock a motorcycle operated by William C.
Raeder, 1614 Felker Ave., struck the rear of an auto driven by Charles R. Wendell, 1706 E.
Fourth street. No one was hurt.
At 6:50 p.m., an unknown vehicle struck a car parked by Victor Chandler Jr., 112 W.
Grant St., at the Karau Food Store parking lot.

marchers. "Listen to the man," the priest said, in an apparent reference to the sergeant.

Police led the marchers around the corner and back toward 16th street and the viaduct leading to the safety of Milwaukee's downtown. The whites regrouped behind police lines and jeered as the marchers retreat-

Services Set For Madison On Thursday

WAUSAU — Military rites will be conducted at the West Side Helke Funeral Home here at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for Airman David Madison, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Madison, former Marshfield residents.

Airman Madison, who had been stationed at Luke Air Base, Phoenix, Ariz., was fatally injured in a surfing accident near Los Angeles, Calif., on Sept. 3, and died in a hospital there on Sept. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison flew to Los Angeles when notified of the accident and were there when he died. The body is being flown back to Wisconsin, accompanied by a military escort.

David Madison was born on Sept. 16 and attended grade school at Marshfield and Wausau, graduated from Wausau Senior High School in 1964 and had attended Marathon County Technical School and Stout State University at Menomonie.

He entered the Air Force in July, 1966, received basic training at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Texas, and was stationed at Lowry AFB, Denver, before going to Phoenix.

As a member of the Wausau Chapter of DeMolay he had received the second highest honor of the order, that of Chevalier.
He is survived by his parents, a sister, Mrs. Judy Grabeau, and by his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson of Amherst.

march to destruction," said a youth in a black T-shirt.

"We want slaves," the crowd began to call.

Police tried to persuade the crowd to disperse. An occasional bottle flew toward the police ranks. They rushed one crowd of whites on a corner. "Police brutality," the crowd yelled.

A police loudspeaker finally announced, "This has been declared an unlawful assembly. Arrests can and will be made."

The crowd finally began to melt away.

The South Side is a polyglot area of industries, small businesses and lower middle class homes. It has 350,000 residents.
An estimated 150,000 of them are of Polish descent.

Only six Negro families live on the South Side. Milwaukee's 86, 000 Negroes are clustered for the most part in the city's Inner Core.

Marches on the South Side late last month were also showered by bricks and bottles but subsequent demonstrations, including Sunday's, had been held without serious incident.
