

the spirit moved him.

If a member of the inner circle, say, like Goering, Goebbels, Ribbentrop, or Ley had been regularly summoned to report at stated intervals, or to see Der Fuehrer daily, only to find now that his boss was inaccessible, he might in an unguarded moment give expression to his disappointment, and the world might thus be forewarned of a change in condition, temperament, or favoritism at headquarters. But Hitler deliberately from time to time put his lieutenants in the doghouse, just by way of showing his undisputed supremacy.

FRED OBERMAYER KILLED IN ACTION NOVEMBER 5

Pvt. Fred W. Obermayer, only son of Mrs. Marie (Raab) Obermayer, formerly of Marshfield and now residing in Chicago, was reported killed somewhere in France on Nov. 5, according to information received here by his uncle, Frank Raab, 1701 Richfield street.

Pvt. Obermayer resided at 419 MaGee street for six months before his induction. He was inducted into the armed service from Marshfield in August, 1943, and was a transfer from the South Wood County Board.

He served with the Seventh Army in France, with a heavy mobile artillery unit, and was previously reported missing in action on Oct. 15 of this year.

STRIKING WAR PRISONERS ARE DENIED SPAGHETTI

Omaha — (AP) — There was no spaghetti today for several hundred Italian prisoners of war here who refused to work at Army installations.

A restricted diet put into effect when the work stoppage continued does not include their favorite dish, the Seventh Service Command disclosed. Previously the Italians had been consuming "more than the usual amount" of spaghetti, the Army said.

The restrictive diet is being carried out under supervision of Army medical officers so that it does not constitute a threat to the health of the prisoners of war, the Army said. The dispute began when Italians employed at Fort Crook near here objected to "certain working conditions."

TAKEN TO A DOCTOR'S OFFICE, HE SUFFERED a stroke and died shortly after he was admitted to Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

Dr. Elmer Belt said Carter came into his office complaining he had been suffering from a kidney ailment and that he had the first such attack eight days ago in Kansas City.

The physician said that while Carter was being examined and was on an X-ray table he had a general convulsion. Dr. Belt said he was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage. Dr. John Doyle, a neurologist, was called in and accompanied Carter by ambulance to the hospital. Dr. Belt said he has asked that a coroner's inquest be held.

Carter's radio signature, "Cheerio," was familiar in almost every American household.

He was born in the British consulate at South Baku, Russia, of Irish-English parents, came to the United States in 1920 and for a

CARPENTERS CLOSE 4-DAY CONVENTION

Beloit Chosen as 1945 Meeting Place for State Council

The Wisconsin State Council of Carpenters and Joiners, ended its four-day convention at the Eagles Hall this morning with the installation of officers. Before adjourning the delegates chose Beloit as the 1945 convention city.

At yesterday's convention meeting, a resolution was adopted by the delegates setting aside $500 annually to provide a scholarship for a carpenter or joiner who has completed a four-year apprenticeship.

The scholarship award will be made to the graduate apprentice having the highest grade in a statewide competitive examination. A committee of three members of the Wisconsin State Council, to be appointed by the president, will conduct the examination.

Support of the present system of adult and vocational education was embodied in another resolution.
