Senior grand champion female winner was Mike Kieffer, Auburndale, and reserve champion honors went to Jerry Lippert, Pittsville.

Gary Loonstra, Marshfield, exhibited the grand champion male.

Other winners were Mike Kieffer, best uddered animal; Frances Harbel, Junction City, junior showmanship award, and Daniel Urban, Pittsville, senior showmanship title.

All of the blue-ribbon winners at the show will be eligible for competition at the State Fair, subject to the approval of the Wood County 4-H Future Farmers of America selection committee.

Portage County, Wisconsin, April 23, 1883. She received her education in Portage schools and was married in Marshfield in 1888 to Albert J. Boucher, who preceded her in death about 10 years ago. The couple lived in this city until 1934, when they moved to Waubesa.

Mrs. Boucher was a member of the Methodist Church.

She is survived by two sons, Washington Boucher, Marshfield, and Melton C. Boucher, Citrus Heights, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Elizabeth) Parmelle, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Myrtle Barclay, Richmond, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Walkmeister, Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Emma Mayfield, Woodland, Calif.; a brother, John Hellingshead, California; 16 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one son, a daughter, and seven brothers and sisters.

Rites Are Conducted For Lieut. Schueller

Services for 1st. Lieut. James P. Schueller, 24, route 2, Marshfield, a June 23 casualty of the Vietnam War, were held in Corpus Christi Catholic Church at Bakerville at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. The Rev. Thomas Garthwaite, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Marshfield, officiated. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Richard Reigel, Anthony Schmitt, Archie Trader, David Hederer, Jeffery Macht and Ojars Rekis.

Military rites at graveside were in charge of units representing the Marshfield Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.
