

Three Teachers at the Arpin Elementary School who plan to withdraw from the faculty at the close of the school year were presented with corsages at the meeting of the school Women's Assn. Monday evening.

They are Miss Carol Lundgren and Mrs. Louis Wingart, both of Marshfield, Vesper. Guests were present from areas which are merging with the Arpin school district.

New officers were installed by the past president, Mrs. Arthur Brogan. They are Mrs. Frances Jepsen, president; Mrs. Willard Moran, vice president; Mrs. Fred Schuening, secretary, and Mrs. Edward Haumschild, treasurer.

The association donated funds to each classroom for class trips and plans were discussed for the eighth grade banquet Thursday evening when the speakers will be Allie and Pennamma Jacobs of India, student nurses at St. Joseph's Hospital, Marshfield.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Abelus Bouna, Mrs. John Passer and Mrs. Robert Hendrickson.

Banquet
Seventy-five women were present at the Mother-daughter banquet Thursday evening in St. John's United Church of Christ. Men of the church served the turkey dinner. The tables were prettily with seasonal flowers and Maypoles.

The program included a reading "She's Somebody's Mother" by Mrs. Janet Engelbright of Wisconsin Rapids and the showing of slides taken on a tour of Europe by the Rev. Paul Schippel.

A hat contest provided entertainment with the prizes going to Mrs. Cyril Gabel, Mrs. Donald Fox, Mrs. Leon Grimm, Mrs. Al Vandenberg, Mrs. Ella Setzkorn, Mrs. Otto Severt, Mrs. Gus Tischendorf, Diane Fox, Patti Johnsrud and Nancy Buchanan.

Mrs. Charles Grimm received the prize for the oldest mother present. Other awards went to Mrs. Gus Tischendorf, Mrs. William Grimm, Mrs. William Ohm and Mrs. Dorothy Zimmerman, the latter of Kellner.

Women's Assn.
Sixty-two mothers and daughters were present for the banquet Monday evening at the Presbyterian Church sponsored by the Women's Assn. Table decorations were May flowers and favors at each place.

Mrs. Ray Brody introduced the following program: Reading, "What It Means to Be a Mother," Mrs. Edward Scheunemann; reading, "What It Means to Be a Daughter," Mrs. Daniel VanNatta; song, "Mother," Karen Hartmann; hymns, "In the Garden" and "Life is Like a Railway," Howard Whaples and Eugene Yerke. Slides taken in South America by Marge Tuttle, Wood County 4-H home agent, were shown.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ida Schultz, oldest mother present, and to Mrs. Iva Gardner, Mrs. Norman Stofflet, Mrs. Daniel VanNatta, Mrs. Sheridan Brocken and Patti Rennhack.

Shower
A miscellaneous shower for Miss Judy Nelson, who will be married Saturday, was held at the home of Mrs. Bertha Yerke last Saturday evening. Hostesses were Mrs. Fred Altmann, Mrs. Carl Tomfohrde and Mrs. Bertha Yerke.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Altmann were hostesses at the meeting of Eastern Star at Pittsville on Thursday.

Ruth Circle of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Lena Weinbrenner Thursday afternoon. Miss Florence Edwards led in the Bible lesson.

Friends and neighbors helped Mrs. Gold Post celebrate her birthday at her home on Thursday evening. The potluck supper included a birthday cake baked by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Mausch of Wisconsin Rapids. Mrs. Post and grandson Jeffrey Mausch returned recently from a two weeks' visit at Orlando, Fla., with Mrs. Post's father.

The Arpin Farm Bureau met at the Armin Shupe home Thursday evening. The social time included a potluck supper and cards.

Harry Wernberg received word of the death of his brother, Clarence Wernberg, at Rockford. Floyd Wernberg is also a brother of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Seavers spent the weekend at Milwaukee with relatives.

Mrs. Sheridan Brochen of Neillsville visited the past week.

at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Trickey.

Mrs. Freeman Shupe attended a birthday party for Mrs. Herman Kuehnhold at Auburndale on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gay Vandenberg has returned home after spending a week with her son, Richard Vandenberg at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Fred Altmann attended the Past Matrons Golden Gavel Club at the home of Mrs. Marvin Hewitt at Lindsey on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Walker went to Rockford where they attended the funeral of the former's mother, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Cronstedt and Allen VanNatta of St. Paul spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Mayme VanNatta, Additional Sunday dinner guests were weekend at the Carl Tomfohrde home and with Mrs. Lillian Thorpe, Auburndale.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Franz and sons of Manitowish were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Manlick.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Manlick and daughters of Kenosha visited recently at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Manlick.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Carter of Minneapolis spent the weekend with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Carter.

Miss Barbara Ryan, Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ryan and family, Wausau, spent the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Ryan.

Darrell Howell, Chicago, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Elden Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tomfohrde and family, Osceola, spent the last year.

Fewer Lose Driving Rights in the State
MADISON (AP) — Fewer persons lost their driving rights the first four months of this year than in the same period in 1961, the State Motor Vehicle Department noted today.

Suspensions or revocations totaled 8,299 this year compared to 9,332 in the January-April period last year.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

VFW Post to Celebrate 30 Years of Operation
Buckley-Baldwin Post No. 2534, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Thursday night will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the granting of its charter.

During 30-year charter night, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the VFW Clubrooms, 30- and 25-year members will receive membership honors.

Thirty years ago in May, the Join Buckley Post was chartered with 38 members, 14 of who will receive 30-year pins, cards and cap insignias Thursday evening.

The name of the post was changed to Buckley-Baldwin in honor of Victor Baldwin, who was killed in action in the North Atlantic during World War II. His father, Louis, Wisconsin Rapids, will be among five 25-year members to be honored Thursday.

Four 20-year VFW members, sixty-five 15-year men, 43 ten-year members and 48 five-year members will also receive recognition.

Scheduled to put in appearances at the meeting are Victor Stolze, Wausau, department of Wisconsin commander, and his chief of staff, and Leo Hlytry, Stevens Point, district commander.

Working on the local post's charter night committee are Joseph Narel, chairman; Donald Caylor, post commander; John Siewert, quartermaster; Adrian Elvod, adjutant, and James Lohholz, past district commander.

Lt. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.

"I feel very confident that I have a good chance of winning the endorsement," Lorge said.

Gov. Governor Candidate Makes Appearance Here
Sen. Gerald D. Lorge, R-Bear Creek, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was in Wisconsin Rapids Tuesday speaking with delegates to the state Republican convention in behalf of his candidacy.

Lorge, who told the Tribune he will abide by the convention's endorsement decision, spoke with delegates at the Courthouse here and had noon lunch with a group of them.

The 12-year veteran of the Legislature predicted that he will win majority delegate votes in the st. 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th congressional districts of the state, and that there will be "an

even split" in the 7th and 10th districts.