

Nuptial Vows Exchanged by Arpin Couple

Under a white arched trellis of apple blossoms in the living room of the home of the bride's brother, Rudolph McChesney, at Arpin on Wednesday evening, May 6, Lavina Rose McChesney of Arpin exchanged wedding vows with Paul C. Vineyard, also of Arpin, son of Mrs. Viola Wright of Twin Falls, Idaho. Lilacs were also used in the home decorations for the seven-thirty ceremony read by the Rev. J. C. Michalenko of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Miss Dorothy Cole, niece of the bride, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," "Liebestraum" from "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" and after the ceremony Mrs. Rudolph McChesney sang "My Task".

Dressed in a navy blue sheer suit with white accessories and wearing a shoulderette of gardenias, the bride was attended by her little niece, Patsy Snow, dressed in white tulle and carrying a basket of apple blossoms.

Covers were laid for 36 relatives and friends at the supper which followed. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McChesney and son Calvin Jr. of Wisconsin Rapids were guests from away.

Mrs. Vineyard was graduated as a registered nurse from a Madison hospital, attended Emmanuel Missionary college at Berrien Spring, Mich., and has been employed this past winter in Hinsdale, Ill. Lincoln High-Lites

"Issues of the Present Conflict" was the subject of an interesting and inspiring talk given at the regular Wednesday morning assembly at Lincoln high school by T. W. Brazeau. Referring to the present day Nazi regime in Germany, Mr. Brazeau said fault could not be found with the average German citizen, who is honest, upright and intelligent, but these citizens had not been able to wrest the control of the government from the ruling Prussian, Junker class. He traced German military history for more than a century to prove that this war as well as the last was the result of German connivance.

He claimed the German republic was never really supported by the real leaders in Germany. He traced steps of German attempts to overrun the continent. The speaker also exploded much of the German propaganda, well known to all Americans, such as the claim that England owns 40 per cent of the world and that the Versailles treaty brought on the present conflict because of its harshness to Germany.

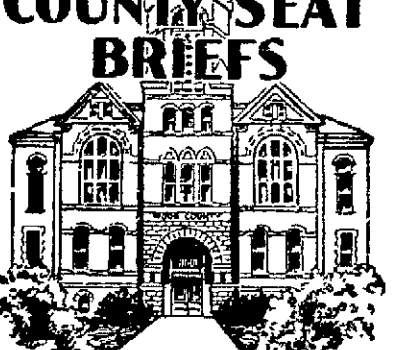

The news has been gloomy, said Mr. Brazeau, but our natural resources backed by the proper spirit will enable the United States to triumph.

Thursday's Assembly

Speaking upon the subject of public health and the May program of vaccinations and immunization against disease, Dr. Arthur Van Duser of the state department of health appeared before the assembly on Thursday morning. He traced the history of smallpox and treatment and prevention of it. Wisconsin is behind many of the other states in the union, he said, because anti-smallpox vaccination is not compulsory. As a result, Wisconsin last year had one-eighth of the 1,300 small pox cases in the United States. He urged vaccination every seven years to assure immunization.

Thursday afternoon the Lincoln high choral groups composed of the choir and the boys' and girls' glee clubs gave a concert at one o'clock, repeating the three selections each group rendered at the Stevens Point district music tournament where each organization won Class A rating.

Girl Scout Corner

As the 1942-43 drive opens the workers on the drive as well as the contributors are asking "What is it about Scouting that makes us willing to help keep it going?" Primarily it is fun for the girls and boys but it is the kind of fun that lasts because they are making themselves into interesting and useful people with ideals and a code that boys and girls all over the world try to follow. The ideals and their code will stand Scouts in good stead all their lives. Look over the Laws a Scout swears to uphold. They cover trustworthiness, loyalty, helpfulness, courtesy, friendliness, obedience, cheerfulness, thrift, cleanliness of thought; surely a fine set of laws for everyday living.

Sunday is Mother's Day and the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts will meet in uniform in the Sunday school rooms of their respective churches to attend services in a body. Attention of Scouts is brought to the fact that Scouts will attend their own church which is not necessarily their troop affiliation.

Adults taking part in the drive or interested in it are invited to have breakfast together on Sunday morning, May 10, at 8 o'clock at the Elks club.

MOTHER

What starts life's clouds upon their way
So that the sun peeks through
To lighten every earthly load
That sorely troubles you?

It's thoughts of Mother, near or far,
At home or on distant shore;
You know her smile and loving care
Will quiet storms that roar.

She pours out blessings that you need,
And drives away all fear,
And always will while life shall last;
Thank God for Mother dear.

Tomorrow Mothers everywhere will be honored for their untiring and unselfish devotion.

It is our hope that the day may be filled with the happiness which they so richly reserve.
