SUNDAY'R EVENTS Candletight Service, First Moravian church, 4 p. m. Christmastide Cantata, First Methodist church, 7:45 p. m. Class of 50 Women

Fifty women finished the basic nutrition course on Wednesday evening of this week. These women have completed a total of 20 hours standard Red Cross study and will receive certificates from national headquarters in St. Louis.

Classes have been held once each week for the past five weeks at the Wood County Normal school building. Mrs. Arthur Treutel, authorized Red Cross instructor, has conducted the classes. Mrs. George L. Heilman, chairman of volunteers special services, and Mrs. E. M. Mc-Court and Mrs. Wm. F. Huffman of the nutrition committee explained the local set up of the Red Cross and asked the women of the class to continue their study and become members of the canteen corps.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. Treutel was presented with a beautiful pin by class members in appreciation of her untiring efforts in their behalf. Mrs. F. H. Rosebush of Port Edwards made the presentation.
