THE WEATHER For Wisconsin: Snow flurries and gradually diminishing winds tonight and Friday. Colder.

Local weather facts for 24 hours preceding 7 s. m.: Maximum 27; minimum 23. Precipitation .31.

Thirty-First Year-No. 9712,

WELCOME HOME !-- Repatriated servicemen, many with limbs missing, again see the New York skyline from the deck of the exchange liner Gripsholm, which brought home 1,209 repatriates, including 509 American soldiers and merchant seamen who were prisoners of war in Germany. The ship's officers advised that 184 litter cases were aboard. (U. S. Navy photo from NEA telephoto.)

Seaman Says 34 Ships Sunk As British Escort Left Convoy

York-(A)-A merchant New seaman repatriated on the Gripsholm said today that British escort ships abandoned a Murmansk-bound convoy in the north Atlantic in July, "Trade Blows their pickings" of the 38 merchant vessels.

The seaman, Walter Stankiewicz, 28, of Baltimore, Md., said he had been on the freighter Carlton, which Berlin and Vichy identified at the time as the last of 38 ships Berlin the house floor today after Rep. said were sunk in the convoy. Stankiewicz put the number sunk at 34, including the 5,127-ton Carl- (D-Miss.) a "dirty liar."

ton. United States and British navy one," shouted the small, white-hairpublic relations officers in New ed Rankin as he dashed across the jection to publication of his story neck. but said they could not vouch for its The two struggled for almost a | coast of Luzon. Stankiewicz said the convoy was minute before fellow congressmen attacked a few days before July 4 separated them. by submarines, on July 4, by 24 tor-Friends of Rankin immediately pedo bombers and again on July 5 set out to in

U. S. BOMBS SINK 2 Democrats JAP PRISON SHIP In Congress

Washington-(A)-Two Democrats locked in a brief struggle on Hook (D-Mich.) called Rep. Rankin

"I don't take that talk from any-York and Washington offered no ob- aisle to lock his arms around Hook's occurred last October with the ap- the Germans enormously in men and against Hook. Americans aboard. In the other, in Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) told a reporter that "a resolution is being drafted prisoners survived. bership." He said it probably would be submitted some time this afternoon. attack. Rep. Smith (D-Va.) also said Most Dying Anyway "something will be done this after-

Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Thursday, February 22, 1945.

Single Copy Five Cents

Following the fall of Saarburg enemy resistance collapsed in the triangle and the Germans pulled back across the Saar to strong hill positions in the Hochwald. But the crossings of the Saar were Paris-(AP)-Lt. Gen. George S.

Patton's American Third army, running high, wide and handsome again, stormed within five miles of Trier today, crossed the Saar river against distintegrated German resistance and swept up 33 more Nazi

Already tanks and infantry were within sight of the main defense works covering Trier, a city of 88,-

000 and keystone of the whole German defense system before the middle Rhine. They were a mile and a quarter from Konz, site of a large fort at the confluence of the Saar

While Patton's columns advanced three miles or more immediately north of the mdustrial Saar district,

Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's 7th army smashed into the district from the south, advancing to within two miles of ruined Saarbruecken, the

His Americans captured half of Forbach, French gateway to Saar-bruecken, from raw conscripts of the Volkssturm who were bolstered by heavy German weapons. Storied

Spicheren, which the Germans stormed in a great battle in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, was taken. The Siegfried line was with-and Moselie rivers.

Yanks in Forbach

capital.

in view.

towns in the Moselle valley.

unopposed.

BY JAMES M. LONG

PATTON IS ON LOOSE AGAIN! Third Army U.S. Ships Damaged, 4,550 Within Five Miles of Trier Marines Lost in Iwo Battle BULLETIN With U. S. Third Army-(.P)—Lt. Gen. George S. Pat-ton's troops completed the conquest of the Saar-Moselle

Russians Batter Way Into GubenWhile2,000Planes damage from attacks by Japanese fighters and bombers, Japanese coun-terattacks have been beaten back and U. S. marine casualties have risen to 4,553 in the desperate battle for the island, Admiral Chester W. Join East Prussia Assault again have battered into Guben, German hingepoint on the Neisse 51 miles southeast of Berlin, a German military commentator reported today.

BY RICHARD KASISCHKE

Street fighting is going on in the town, he said.

Guben previously was reported bypassed by the Russians, who annonnced gains up to the confluence of the Neisse and Oder.

The Germans said last Monday that the Russians had fought into Guben, but were forced to withlraw

Col. Ernst Von Hammer, Berlin commentator, said a new assault was launched upon the stronghold this morning. Planes in Action

In East Prussia, Von Hammer reported, Russian pressure has "increased to the greatest ferocity"

Washington — (P) — American with more than 2,000 Soviet planes bombs sank a Japanese prison ship joining the assault. He said Zinten, loaded with 1,600 Americans off the 17 miles south of Koenigsberg and Philippines last December, and of 15 miles from the coast, had been the fewer than half who survived all while the Durated by German forces. While the Russians scored new but two apparently were recaptured. gains southeast of the German capi-

One of the survivors, Navy Lt. | tal, other Soviet troops were forced George Karl Petritz, of Rockford, to give some ground in East Prus-Ill., told of the sinking at a news sia in the face of heavy German counterblows west of Koenigsberg. conference today. The navy said his The Berlin radio said a surprise was the first account of the disasnazi counteroffensive had reestabter, which occurred off the west lished a corridor between Koenigsberg and the port of Pillau, 20 miles

-both by submarine action-have some German advances in that sec-

BY FRED HAMPSON Manila \rightarrow (\mathbb{P}) — Only scattered enemy remnants were left on Corregidor today but fanatically resisting Japanese troops still held out on the second floor of the famed Manila hotel, turning the hostelry into the hottest battle spot in the capital city at dawn today. Early front line reports that elements of the First cavalry division had captured the big hotel, one of the most luxurious in the Orient, have been corrected to say that they have occupied the first floor, the Japanese the second. Historic Bataan was cleared of Japanese, Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported, and "so far as can be found, no living Japanese soldier is now on the Peninsula." The Americans cleaned up Bataan in less than a month; it took the Japanese more than three months to drive Americans out in 1942. Japs Blow Selves Up Hopelessly sealed in the vast network of tunnels on Corregidor, Nipponese troops blew themselves up by touching off one of their main un-

Two previous prison ship sinkings south. The Russian acknowledged derground ammunition dumps. Typical of the bitter inch by inch been reported in the Pacific. One tor but said the drive was costing struggle for downtown Manila was the battle through most of the night of the enemy. BY AL DOPKING

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Guam-(P)-(via navy radio)- | triangle today, captured Saar-United States fleet units in the vicinity of Iwo Jima have sustained some burg and forced two crossings damage from attacks by Japanese fighters and bombers, Japanese coun- of the Saar river. risen to 4,558 in the desperate battle for the island, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz announced today.

The attack by Japanese planes was the first against the surface units since the battle for the island 750 miles south of Tokyo began. Seven of the enemy planes were shot down. Nimitz did not elaborate on the extent of damage or the type of ships hit.

The casualties include 385 killed and 4,168 wounded in action up to 5:45 p. m. last night.

Japanese counterattacks accompanied by numerous attempts at breaking marine lines were beaten back during the night and the leathernecks,

The Canadian First army in the north pounded to within 2,000 yards strengthened by the U. S. Third marine division which landed yesterday, of bitterly contested Calcar in its launched attacks both to the north and south against the divided forces drive toward the Ruhr valley.

whole allied flying arsenal T tte by submarines. Says Departure Ordered authenticity.

Just before the first attack, he said, the British admiral in charge to expel Hook or suspend his memof some 14 destroyers, six corvettes, four heavy cruisers and several small boats ordered the escort to leave the convoy, telling the merchant ships they would have to make [their own way to port. Stankiewicz said he understood the British ships left to engage in battle with German warshins and See-CONVOY-Page 9

U.S. Casualties Reach801,162

navy casualties since Pearl Harbor with "some of the good men in the identity undisclosed-who also made have reached 801,162, the two services reported today.

Secretary of War Stimson set army casualties at 711,497 on the hasis of individual names compiled in Washington through February 14. The navy reported its losses as 89,- League Official

The aggregate represented an increase of 18,982 over the previous weeks report. Of the rise, the army accounted for all but 827.

A breakdown on the army casualties as reported this week and corresponding figures for last week: Killed 138,723 and 135,510; wounded 420,465 and 408,553; prisoners 60,086 and 58,556; missing 92,-223 and 90,723.

Stimson said 207,328 of the wounded had returned to duty. Similar figures for the navy:

Killed 33.862 and 33,536; wounded 40,783 and 40,607; prisoners 4,474, unchanged from the preceding week; missing 10,546 and 10,221.

Hold Everything

"My little brother makes my boy friends stand at attention till be gets a quarter!"

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®_

noon." Hook's remarks were stricken from the record at the direction of Rep. Ramspeck (D-Ga.), the Democratic whip who was presiding. The clash occurred while Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) was delivering a speech denouncing the CIO Political Action committee. Hook took the floor to praise some of the men connected with the PAC poorly ventilated holds.

and Rankin attempted to interrupt. Hook cut him off by saying he Washington - (P) - Army and would do better to get acquainted related, was an army sergeant-his CIO" and stop his "continual ranting and raving,'

"That will be when I get down to the level of the gentleman from See-DEMOCRATS-Page 9

Will Speak at Union Meeting

Hasenohrl, has been missing in action in the European area since American Red Cross held in the Maurice E. Weinberg, St. Paul, regional director of the League for partment telegram received by the Human Rights, sponsored by the mother this week. American Federation of Labor, will The Auburndale soldier was a maaddress the Central Labor body on chine gunner in the 28th division of the forthcoming Red Cross war fund the U. S. First army. He had been G. L. Heilman, vice chairman; Mrs.

campaign during a meeting at Un- previously wounded in action in ion hall this evening. Weinberg is appearing at the invitation of John A. Krohn, presi- | Heart. dent of the Wisconsin Rapids labor group, which has indicated it will by Nekoosa-Edwards Paper com- per; Arnold Kempen, Rudolph; Mrs. take an active part in the 1945 pany prior to his entry into service Oscar Larsen, Port Edwards; Mrs. South Wood county solicitation. September 30, 1941. He went over | Edwin Grosklaus, Biron; Mrs. Wil-

A business meeting at 7:30 this seas in October, 1942, and has servevening will precede Mr. Wein- ed in France, Belgium and Ger- child, Port Edwards: Mrs. J. S. France January 31. berg's talk, scheduled to begin at many. A brother, Cpl. Clarence Sayles, W. A. Sprise, and J. C. Rude 8:30, parent loss of all but five of 1,800 equipment. between the Yanks and Japanese on the second floor of the Manila hotel, Moscow announced Soviet forces

September, only 83 of 750 Allied had seized a strategic ridge posi- where a continual fight to the death tion in the forest on the eastern Petritz, 27, told reporters few of than 50 populated places north and the prisoners involved in the latest south of the immediate sector. sinking died as a result of the air 34 Miles From Berlin

Further north Marshal G. K. Zhukov's First White Russian army

90 per cent would have died anyway complete the encirclement of Frankhad not the ship been sunk, he asfurt. The German radio announced serted. Petritz said he believed the vessel Auburndale-S. Sgt. Edward J.

Hasenohrl. 23, son of Mrs. Anna

France August 10, 1944, for which he had been awarded the Purple

Hasenohrl, is stationed in Belgium. of Wisconsin Rapids.

was headed for the Japanese home- west bank of the Oder 38 miles tion charges. land when it was attacked, because from the German capital, but said many Japanese civilians were they had been restored.

aboard along with the prisoners-Pryada said the Russian army the latter crowded into three dark, that area. The paper did not spe-The only other prisoner who escaped death or recapture, Petritz kovs' troops had crossed the Oder. Nazi radio spokesmen said German forces were fighting a defen-See-PRISON SHIP-Page 9 sive battle between Berlin and the Frankfurt-Kuestrin front, but declared Russian bridgeheads west of

Sgt. Hasenohri the Oder were "far too small" for a major offensive toward Berlin.

ing which stands on Manila's south shore district. A succession of Japanese infiltration attempts resulted in the kill-Some already had suffocated and units were reported attempting to ing of 137 of the enemy around the

went on in the corridors and room and on the staircases of the build-captured Army-Navy club, the high commissioner's office and other Zhukov had slashed communications buildings yesterday. Most of the between Berlin and that city on the slain enemy troops carried demoli-

Bitter fighting also flared in the long contested post office building, stood only 34 miles from Berlin in walled Intramuros can be assaulted.

An area 700 yards by 500, almost cify the location but indicated Zhu- all of it within the Intramuros still remains in the hands of the enemy. Try to Spare Civilians Yesterday, the 17th day of fight-ng in downtown Manila, cost the Japanese 555 counted dead. Eleven were taken prisoner.

Listed Missing Baker Is Re-Elected Red Cross Chairman

South Wood County chapter of the day night, G. R. Baker was re-elected to serve as chapter chairman for the coming year.

MacArthur said the enemy's finishing off the enemy garrison in south Manila was no particular tribute to Japanese skill or tenacity, but rather was caused by the American desire to spare the estimated 7,000 civilians held virtual hostages with-

At an annual meeting of the in the medieval walls. Mac Arthur said the enemy's "savage barbarism has seldom been February 4, according to a war de- Elks club chapter rooms Wednes- displayed in a more repulsive form. Baby Center Is Cut Thousands of Japanese still are on Luzon but most of them are in To Half-Day Period the comparative security of moun-Other officers elected were Mrs. tains and valleys of the northeast.

C. K. Crouse, secretary; and A. J. Arpin Soldier Is Hanneman, treasurer. Representa-Wounded in Action tives to the chapter from surrounding areas are Mrs. Ermon Bennett

Sergeant Hasenohrl was employed | Cranmoor; Mrs. W. W. Clark, Ves-Arpin-Mrs. Mike Unertle received a telegram from the war department earlier this week saying that nounced. her son, Aloysius Mayer, was seriliam Rusk, Nekoosa; Irving Hofsously wounded in action in southern

> The Arpin soldier is now recuperating in a hospital in France.

(By the Associated Press) A Japanese imperial headquarters communique today claimed that Japanese suicide fliers sank two American aircraft carriers off Iwo Jima southern tip of the island, coordinat-

U.S. Aircraft

Carriers Sunk

yesterday while unofficial Tokyo reports asserted more than 12,000 U. an assault on the face of the cliff sive. which must be subdued before the S. marines have been killed or | "under most difficult combat condiwounded on the island 750 miles tions." south of Tokyo.

All of the enemy claims, contained in broadcasts recorded by the out the northern part of the island federal communications commission, were without American confirmation.

The enemy communique also asserted an unidentified U.S. warship was sunk and two others damaged off Iwo, while a Nipponese submarine sank an American cruiser in the Philippines. Other Japanese broadcasts quoted force.

alarmed Tokyo newspapers as warningt hat "the war situation is really grave" and "if we waver now, it means defeat."

The northward drive toward the appeared to be on the wing today Japs Claim Two central Iwo airfield met heavy re- in probably the mightiest allied hard rain, had knocked out numerous enemy gun positions and generally weakened enemy defenses. There was little change in front ine positions, Ninutz' communique sistance in the form of mortars and aerial onslaught of the year against automatic weapons. At noon the Hitler's breached and buckling westtroops, advancing slowly through ern line, and his battered interior communications. The air blows were building up toward a climax which might explode m an all out offensive which has been checked by bad weather, mud and flooding.

Reports reaching Bradley's headquarters told of a tremendous explosion just before midnight near the Urfttalspere dam on the Roer headwaters. Its reservoir empties into the larger Schwammenauel lake, now 90 per cent empty. It was not immediately apparent whether the dam had been brached, loosing new floods on the Roer. The river up to midnight was sufficiently low and slow to allow bridging on the First army front near the dams, south-

Bright sun bathed the western front again today, and planes took off early. In 5,400 sorties yesterday, bombers smashed such centers as

Duisburg, Nuerrberg, Berlin,

Wurms and Calcar—the latter 17

Washington— (\mathcal{P}) — The house bassed today a postwar rivers and

500 MILLION BILL PASSES

west of Cologne.

admitted, however. Despite the spectacular gains of the Third army and the slow chip-Forces facing Mt. Suribachi, volcanic Japanese fortress on the ping progress of the British and Canadian troops in the north, it was evident that Gen. Eisenhower had ed their duve with the northern troops and by noon were beginning not yet loosed his full scale offen-

Greatest Potential Drive Between these forces was the Heavy naval gunfire continued to greatest potential weight on the whole western front-the British pound enemy held positions throughsecond, the American First and and fleet aircraft supported ground Ninth armies and perhaps other units-still waiting for their hour forces with heavy bombing, strafing and rocket attacks. as the flooded Roer river slowly receded before them.

The veteran Third division landed on Iwo at a critical hour, bolstering two other hard-pressed divisions with veterans of the invasions of Bougainville and Guam. Maj. Gen. Graves B. Erskine commands the

The commitment of three marine divisions in the four-day-old Iwo invasion meant as many as 45,000 men may be either ashore or in the process of being sent against the enemy.

Memorial Services For Sgt. E. J. Regan

The baby clinic scheduled in the Memorial services for Staff Sgi. courthouse annex Friday has been reduced to a half day period. Some Edwin J. Regan, 29, will be held at of those who have appointments in 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Imthe afternoon may be moved to the manuel Lutheran church. The Rev. morning hours but it will be neces- [E. G. Kuechle will conduct the sersary to cancel a majority of the vice. afternoon appointments, it was an-Sergeant Regan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Regan, 150 Third avenue Dr. Arthur Van Duser, examinsouth, was killed in action on the ing physician, was requested to at-jisland of Levie in the Philippines tend a meeting at LaCrosse on Fri- on December 9, 1914. He entered day afternoon, necessitating the the service three years before on December 11, 1911.

arbors bill authorizing projects to ost nearly $500,000,000. Poll Is Accused

7,000 Planes Splatter Reich in Giant Raid BY HENRY B. JAMESON

hit Germany at dozens of places diana extending from Hannover on day. It was the war's biggest and Nuernberg north to Leubeck bay. most spectacular bombardment of the reich.

The onslaught was aimed at knocking out the nazi communications network serving both the Eastern and Western fronts. Explosives cascaded upon German gets in the heart of the reich durtargets at the rate of 100 tons a ing the noon hour. minute.

Spearheading the "buckshot air war"-a new idea mapped by allied scuare miles. air chiefs in readiness for clear Within this area the bomber packs front. weather-more than 1,400 U.S. planted more than 14,000 500-pound

Fortresses and Liberators and 800 high explosive bombs on at least 14 ers smote German lines in the west | The air forces were intent upon [Worms seemed on fire."

fighters attacked a middle reich | railyards, each located at a junction | and Bivouac areas nearby from day- | discupling a major part of the Ger-London-(P)-Allied air forces rectangle the size and shape of In- of two or more main rail routes. with approximately 7,000 planes to- eastward almost to Berlin and from shops were hit, miles of rail lines summer. Pilots could see for 50 Two divisions of this huge fleet railcars were disabled. All the at- German front and traffic tenacles poured into Germany from the north | tacks on central Germany were | linked to it. and a third from the south. These crowded into the six explosive min-broke up into packs of up to 100 utes before noon. The four-engined bombers each, which struck at least bombers flew lower than usual be to calculate immediately the full gaged in numerous dogfights in 24 freight yards and other rail tarcause opposition was lacking.

The Eighth air force bombers rail bottlenecks of Duisburg and menths. were assigned to an area of 38,000 Worms, which funnel reinforce-

Wave after wave of fighter bomb- Germany in 48 hours.

The greatest railway network in Freight vards at Duisburg and reinforcements for the Western formed by the cities of Dortmund.

1,100 heavy bombers struck. Night fighters escorting the bombers endevastation. The planes, however, skies lit by fires glowing below and a bright bombers' moon above.

The air ministry said 39 bombers and fighters were lost and that 13 bombs, including 400,000 small innazi planes were destroyed over-close to 15,000 planes in the air over ing two miles above the targets. cars in the yards waiting to pull One pilot said the "whole town of out for the Eastern front.

Hitler keeps his troops going defront when the British armada of | Duisburg and Cologne. The jolting night attacks followed the U.S. Eighth air force's greatest concentrated raid on a single target in over four months.

More than 1,200 Fortresses and Liberators dropped 3,000 tons of cendiaries, into the Nuernberg marshalling yards. Reconnaissance planes had reported 2,500 freight

Of Doing Hatchet Job on Washington Washington— (\mathcal{P}) – Rep. Bloom (D-N.Y.) accused a national poll today of doing a hatchet job on George Washington, Bloom said it was an "insult" for the Gallup poil to report-on the eve of Washington's birthday-that a majority of the people checked thought Lincoln was greater. To Dr. George Gallup, director of the American institute of public opinion. Bloom wrote:

"You might just as well take a poll on . . . 'who do you love better, your mother or your father?"

__ . NewspaperARCHIVE®

break to far into the afternoon in man railroad system. Targets today Europe-one which explains how Freight yards and rail repair the best flying weather since last were not immediately named. were twisted and locomotives and miles. Medium bombers struck the Worms were crammed with priority spite the olds-lie in the triangle

With the planes still going out hour after hour, it was impossible

Overnight, the British bombed clearly were spreading havoc and Berlin and heavily assaulted the ruin beyond anything loosed for Counting the RAF attacks last ments and arms to the Western night, the allies probably have put night. Crews reported smoke ma-curtailment.