Staege, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Staege, Nekoosa, who was killed in action in France on September 7, 1944, has been returned to the United States aboard the army transport "Lawrence Victory," together with remains of 5,863 other Americans who lost their lives during World war II.

Pfc. Staege was serving as an assistant gunner in a tank division in the Seventh army at the time of his death. He had entered military service January 20, 1943, received his training at Fort Knox, Ky., and then went overseas, landing in North Africa June 26, 1943. He participated in the North African and Italian campaigns and in the invasion of southern France.

Born June 26, 1922 at Babcock, Dale Staege attended the Babcock graded school and Alexander High school in Nekoosa, from which he graduated in 1940. At the time of his induction into the army he was employed by Nekoosa-Edwards Paper company.

Bodies of three other central Wisconsin soldiers were returned to this country from temporary military cemeteries in Europe aboard the "Lawrence Victory." They were Pvt. Andrew S. Walanski, Route 2, Necedah; Pvt. Theodore H. Fike, New Lisbon, and Pvt. Raymond G. Zeleski, Stevens Point.
