

Two Madison Men Take Brides in Recent Illinois Ceremonies

The First Presbyterian church in Lake Forest, Ill., was the scene Jan. 30 at 4:30 p. m. of the wedding of Miss Olive Lorraine Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coxe Freeman, Lake Forest, and Lieut. (j. g.) Paul Martin Cunningham, son of the S. A. Cunninghams, 109 S. Randall ave. The Rev. W. Oliver Brackett officiated.

Miss Freeman, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Dora Cunningham, Bloomington, Ill., sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and by Mrs. Dora W. Niswender and Miss Dorothy Matson as bridesmaids.

Lieut. Jack Tausend, Camp Grant, Ill., a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were Lieut. Comdr. Ralph E. Diffenderfer, Lieut. (j. g.) Harold V. Morley, and Lieut. (j. g.) Maurice Stauffer.

The bride wore a white silk jersey dress with a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Mary Queen of Scots cap. She carried a bouquet of white butterfly gladioli, centered with white orchids.

Miss Cunningham wore a red faille gown and a head-dress of white plumes. She carried gladioli. The bridesmaids were attired identically in chartrreuse faille.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue and white ensemble, while the bridegroom's mother was gowned in purple. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

After the ceremony, a reception was held from 5 to 7 p. m. in the lounge of the Young Women's club. Later, a buffet supper was served to members of the bridal party at the home of Mrs. Niswender, one of the bridesmaids.

The bride, who attended the Lake College of Commerce, has been connected with the personnel department at the Great Lakes Naval station, Great Lakes, Ill.

Lieut. Cunningham, a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, was graduated from the University of Wisconsin and from the medical school of the University of Michigan. He is now serving in the office of the Naval Officers' Procurement at Minneapolis.

Lieut. and Mrs. Cunningham have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home at 4345 Dupont ave., S. Minneapolis.

Miss Elsie Freece, daughter of Mrs. Emma Freece, Moline, Ill., and Sgt. Harold L. Towle, Santa Ana, Calif., son of Mrs. Rosa Towle, 442 W. Dayton st., were married Saturday at 9 a. m. in St. Mary of Celle church at Berwyn, Ill. The Rev. R. J. Mastney sang the nuptial mass.

The bride wore a white mohair gown cut on princess lines with a yoke of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and a crystal rosary. Her heirloom necklace had been worn by the brides of her family for eight generations.

Mrs. Harold Freece, the bride's only attendant, wore a yellow marquisette dress and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses. Corp. Harold Freece of Camp Ogelthorpe, Ga., was the best man. Ushers were John O. Towle of Chicago and Ray Moeller of Freeport.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the appointments for the wedding breakfast served to relatives and friends at the home of Mrs. Ralph Douglas, Oak Park, Ill.

The bride, a graduate of the Northern Illinois State Teachers' college, has been teaching home economics in the junior high school at Elmhurst, Ill. Sgt. Towle attended the University of Wisconsin and the Madison college. He was employed as an accountant in Chicago before entering the army last July. He is stationed at present at the Santa Ana army air base.
