
ANOTHER ARNETT BOY GAVE HIS LIFE FOR HIS COUNTRY.

A telegram was received by Mr. and Mrs. John Arnett Sunday from the war department conveying the sad intelligence that their son, William, one of the Marshfield boys who are helping free the world from Kaiserism, was dead in France, he having lost his life in a fall from a train. This is the second son these parents have given for democracy, the first being George, who died several months ago and also buried in France. The sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken relatives of the young hero.
