Gaetke Paces Attack With Three Blows

Combining eight hits with a like number of bases on balls, the Wisconsin Rapids city baseball team scored its third victory in four starts this season when the locals Hancock 1 thumped Junction City to the tune of 12-5 at Witter field Sunday afternoon.

Der Dietzler, stalwart right hand-er for the Rapids, checked Junction City on six hits and coasted to vic-tory on the strength of a big lead afforded him by his mates. Dietzler whifted a dozen batsmen and walk-ed only two Junction City players. Five Runs in Third

Preway Takes Early Lead

Tonight two more Junior league teams make their 1945 debut as Consolidated and Abel's clash at Witter field at 6:30.

Extra Base Hits Help
Johnson & Hill collected only seven hits off two Bethke pitchers last night, but two of them were extra base wallops by Second Baseman Harold Reiman and each played a vital role in the two scoring sturyers. vital role in the two scoring stanzas

In the opening round, with two on and two away, Reiman splashed a double to right, accorning both Reinecke and Darrel Dawe. Reiman later scored himself on a bad throw to third on an attempted steat. Then, in the fourth frame, Rei-inen, in the fourth frame, kei-man began the inning by tripling down the left field foul line. He tallied when Enerson missed a third strike on Pagel. The J. & H. cen-terfielder eventually counted on an infield out with the final run for the Habaran the Hubermen.

A "break" added Habeck in the last of the first inning and after that he was in serious trouble only

Misses, First Base

Misses, First Base
With two away in the first, King singled to right for Bethke's. Dick Gray hammered an apparent triple to deep right, with King crossing the plate. However, Gray failed to touch first base on the blow and was called out when the ball was retrieved and tossed to the initial sack. Thus, the run was nullified and Gray deprived of a hit.

two safeties and a pair of walks.

Herman also had two free trips to first, in addition to his base knocks.

Herman whiffed five batters in the first imning, yet Preway scored wice. This very unusual circumstance. Gray scored the only Bethke run in the fourth. He opened the frame by singling down the first base line and eventually counted when Reimer dropped the hall after tagging him out at the plate. Belike's put men on second and third in this stanza with nobody out and a run in; however, the rally faded when Marceau fanned for Passinesu, who refused to bat, and Whitrock and Enerson were easy outs, following a base-filling pass to Rasmussen.

Gray hurled the last three stanzas for Rethke, holding the winners scoreless on three hits.
