

LOCAL CITY

Cheryl Hoekstra

Cheryl L. Hoekstra, 19, 1818 Baker St., died Monday at the Memphis (Tenn.) Naval Air Station of meningitis. Death followed a 36-hour illness.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Moravian Church with the Rev. Eugene Glasser officiating. Graveside rites will be conducted by Naval Reserve officers at Forest Hill Cemetery.

Miss Hoekstra was born at Marshfield on Aug. 26, 1952, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Hoekstra, Wisconsin Rapids. She graduated from Lincoln High School in 1970 and enlisted in the Navy Waves on Aug. 4, 1971, for a 3-year term. At the time of her death she was an airman apprentice.

Survivors include her parents, grandparents and two sisters, Joni and Richelle, both at home.

Friends may call at the Taylor Funeral Home from 7 p.m. Wednesday until noon Thursday and at the church from 1 p.m. until the time of services. Memorials may be designated for the Moravian Church memorial fund.

Clipped By:

ks070208

Mon, Aug 2, 2021