Entertain 45 at Moravian Rally Supper

Forty-five young people from the First Moravian, Trinity, Rudolph, Saratoga and Kellner Moravian churches gathered for the five-thirty rally supper served by the First Moravian group at the church parlors on Sunday.

Ellen Krueger of the Kellner church presided as toastmaster for the following program: Cornet solos, "Pyrimids" and "Old Folks at Home," James Marks, accompanied by Marjorie Otto at the piano; vocal duet, 'Evening Prayer," Betty and Joyce Hanneman; reading, "Laughter," Mary Moore; declamations. "Courtship of Mary Stone" and "Mazie and Sue," Dick Hagen; saxophone solos, "Danseuse Waltz" and "Deep Purple," Shirley Fuller accompanied by Marjorie Otto; reading "Bud's," Joyce Hjerstedt.

Announcement was made by Katherine Godin of Trinity church of a series of Sunday evening discussion groups to be started soon after Easter. The Rev. Reuben H. Gross and the Rev. George C. Westphal gave short comments on the rally, "Be Yourself" was the title of a short talk given by the Rev. John Wollin of Chaska, Minn., who announced that the 1941 Chetek conference pictures will be shown at a later date. Valentines were exchanged and the supper hour came to a close by singing "America."

The worship service held in the church auditorium was conducted by Jack Muchlstein, Harold Heise reading the scripture and the Rev. Mr Gross leading in prayer. Special music for the service was a vocal duet "Rainbow of God's Love" by Joan and Joyce Peterson accompanied by Betty Hanneman. The Rev. Mr. Wollin, field representative of the Young People's conference, then delivered his message, "So We Are One Body in Christ.'
