said an order of the day broadcast from Moscow.

London—(P)—Red army troops have smashed across the middle Bug river and sent spearheads within 30 miles of the pre-war Rumanian border, Moscow announced today, opening the way for a drive down the Bug's west bank that would offer a grave new threat to the already hard-pressed Germans in lower Russia.

Elsewhere on the long front, a Soviet communique said, the Russians continued to pile up disaster for the hundreds of thousands of Germans in the Ukraine, smashing to within 17 miles of the large Black sea port of Nikolaev on the eastern bank of the lower Bug, and slaying thousands more of the trapped Germans in the Snigerevka pocket north of Kherson.

Reds Hurtle Forward
Crossing of the Bug, the bulletin said, was made southwest of Uman by Marshal Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukraine army, which ripped over on a 62-mile front and then hurtled forward for 12 and 18-mile gains toward the Dniester river frontier of Bessarabia.

Using even empty barrels as rafts, Konev's forces leaped the river between Nemirov, 23 miles southeast of Vinnitsa, and Gaivoron, 62 miles southwest of Uman. The

12 Men Killed in Transport Plane Crash

Danville, Va. —(P)— The crew of a four-engined army plane from the Charleston, S. C., air base was killed last night when the big craft crashed into a summit of Bull mountain—in mountainous southwest Virginia and burned.

Kay Thompson, managing editor of the Martinsville (Va.) Daily Bulletin, and Lt. P. W. Crews of Virginia state police said they counted twelve bodies scattered amid wreckage on the summit in Patrick county.

They were blackened by fire.
Public relations officers at the Charleston base said the plane was from there, but provided no details.
Evidently the plane was a bomber.

The big plane circled Patrick Springs, a small rural community several times, before hitting the mountainside about 11:40 p.m.

Fred Williams, who lives in Patrick Springs, said he was told that the bodies would be sent to Winston-Salem, N. C., after being brought three miles through the timberland to the nearest road. Army personnel and a band of volunteers were engaged in that task this morning. MAR 16 1944
