

NOV 30 1944

health. The animals are to 11 10 o'clock

dren will be d by parents.
arded for the c in the show ird prize rib-
the various
will be Jack
of Lampson,
nc., and Al
is., of Ameri-
eders Assoc., i Jong experi-
G. R. Hart-
ow veterinar-

ow committee
man, Henry,
Brooks, J. E.
as Howland.
Will Witten-
ification com-

WOUNDS PROVE FATAL—S/Sgt. Gerald H. Mason, 20, son of Mrs. Clara Mason, 521 Oak street, died November 15 in Germany of wounds received in action on November 6. His mother received the sad news from the war department Tuesday night.

about his
"This
these cit native is which I

Ya Hu

Washi
military
America
are, in t
It said
seem to
in Japan
And a
States, i not par
The c
house go Chairma
ed laxity and Ital latter.

Not Too
Comm
no evide
of inma
that in ad bette
leges th
Provi

MASON