

July 24
1943

MASS TO BE READ FOR SGT. REDMOND

Pittsville Soldier Dies of Wounds Suffered in Africa Campaign

Pittsville—(Special)—A Memorial Requiem High Mass will be read Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock at St. Joachim's Catholic Church, Pittsville, of which the Rev. John Willitzer is pastor, for Sgt. Thomas A. Redmond, 26, who died in action in North Africa.

Sgt. Redmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Redmond, who reside on a farm 4 miles north of Pittsville, was seriously wounded in action on May 14, after having been overseas since last October.

He was born in Rockford, Ill., Jan. 6, 1917, and when two years old went with his parents to Necedah, moving to the Pittsville vicinity seven years later. Since that time and up to the time of entering service Feb. 19, 1941, he lived in and near Pittsville, where he graduated from St. Joachim's Parochial School.

Surviving besides his parents are seven brothers, William of Minneapolis, John of Rockford, Ill., and Gerald, James, Robert, Everett, and Charles, all at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Merlin (Dorothy) Schooley, Seneca Corners, and Mrs. Edward (Mary) Weinfurter, Florida, where she is living with her husband stationed at an Army camp.

GEN. JACOMY ARRIVES IN SAN JUAN FOR MEETINGS

San Juan, Puerto Rico—(AP)—

Sgt. Thomas A. Redmond

WALLACE PLANNING TO GET ACQUAINTED

Vice President Makes Tour of Huge Ford Plant at Willow Run

Detroit—(AP)—Vice President Henry Wallace said here today that he intends to spend the time he formerly devoted to the Board of Economic Warfare to "getting acquainted with the folks in Washington and throughout the country."

Wallace, relieved of his BEW work by President Roosevelt after his differences with Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, said he was proud of the agency and con-

FELKER

DON WA
OUT

YOUR CAR!!

on, Wis., won't put a nickel in apitol Square,

H KILLS TURES SIX

ws Into Rear
tion Car
today

Us

Com