Land I Have Chosen by Ellin Berlin-Mrs. Berlin tells the story of Anne Brooke, Manhattan socialite, and Lisa Blessing, German actress. From 1928 on, they watched the world heading toward disaster. Though Anne was convinced by her Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Southampton friends that there might be something good in this new German set-up . . . Lisa really understood the danger. A realistic study of two women who moved in the Parents and friends of the girls same society, who both loved the same man-but who found entirely different values in life.
