

Nekoosa Youth Killed In Crash of Bomber

QUONSET POINT, R.I. (AP) — George A. Buehler, 22, Nekoosa, Wis., was one of 13 crew members killed Thursday when a Navy plane engaged in anti-submarine exercises plunged into the sea.

The Neptune bomber hit the water 70 miles southeast of Block Island after it "made a pass" at a submarine.

Buehler, an aviation ordinance-man 2-C, is survived by his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Buehler of Nekoosa.
