

MAY 5 1942

62 from Wisconsin Lose Lives in Navy

for Washington—(P)—The navy deh a partment announced today the ould names of 62 Wisconsin men killed lent in action during the first four title months of the war. The list includ-ow- ed six officers and 56 enlisted men. rty, The Wisconsin men were part th- of 5,486 naval, marine and coast In- guard personnel reported dead or ves- missing Saturday by the depart-an- ment. The recapitulation covered ere the period from December 7 to try April 15 inclusive. obi- (The list of Wisconsin victims in-be cluded the following from this tia- area: Julius Rude jr., fireman sec-war- ond class, Wisconsin Rapids; James hru- E. Wallace, seaman first class, and ess- Ralph E. Tuttle, fireman second sist- class, both of Adams; James M. of Scribner, seaman first class, Stevannounced.) ens Point; Emery J. Nelson, seaman first class, Rosholt. Deaths of these men had previously been announced.)

Rude