little harm done to the railing.

A Wisconsin Rapids woman — Mrs. Lois L. Sultze, Route 2 — was slightly hurt Saturday afternoon when her car collided with another. Mrs. Sultze told county police her neck had been injured.

The Sultze auto was turning into a driveway on Highway 73 east of Nekoosa when it was struck from the rear by a car operated by George H. Crowns, 63, Kewaunee. Total damage was listed at $200.

Hitting a deer, a car driven by Otto C. Schwichtenberg, 34, Route 1, was damaged to the extent of $350 Sunday on County Trunk O north of the city. The animal was killed and dragged 125 feet along the road.

Damage came to about $400 Sunday morning in a collision at the Fourth street-East Grand avenue intersection involving autos driven by Clair R. Gilbertson, 27, 1810 Peach street, and Edmund C. Bretl, 37, 350 Pepper street.

10 Make Police Eligibility List

Ten men have been placed on an eligibility list of candidates for positions in the city police department, the Wisconsin Rapids police and fire commission announced today.

Receiving passing grades on an examination conducted last week by the commission, the following men, in alphabetical order, have been declared eligible for appointment as policemen:

Arthur E. Berg (at the present time undersheriff of Wood county), Charles A. Cernik, David Froggett, Allen O. Holmstad, Orville Johnson, Lester Klug, LeRoy Lautenbach, John A. Powers, Warren Sullivan and Herbert Zuege.

This new list will serve to fill vacancies occurring in the department during the next 18 months.

Donald Young Rites Friday

Funeral services have been arranged for 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Krohn & Berard chapel for Pfc. Donald R. Young, 22, who was killed in action in Korea last February 12, and whose body will arrive here Tuesday evening under military escort. Elder C. M. Bee, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, is to officiate.

Interment will take place in Forest Hill cemetery with military rites by Buckley-Baldwin post No.
2534, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Pfc Young was born in Wisconsin Rapids on March 31, 1928. He spent his early years in Pittsville and graduated from high school at Whitewater in 1947. His mother died in 1932 and two brothers, William and Gordon, also preceded him in death.

He is survived by his father William Young, Wisconsin Rapids; five brothers, Joyce William, with whom he made his home prior to entering service, and Ronald, Wisconsin Rapids; Clifford, Onalaska; Richard, Calexico, Cal., and Thomas, Sheridan, Wyo., and four sisters, Mrs. George Kester, Wisconsin Rapids; Mrs. G. M. Scoville, Onalaska; Mrs. Lawrence Aubrey, Dubuque, Ia., and Mrs. Harry Entler, Rock Island, Ill.

A member of the 38th regiment, 2nd Infantry division, Pfc. Young went to Korea last November after a month's training at Fort Lewis, Wash. Previously he had served an 18 month's training in the army.
Prior to returning to service last fall, he was employed at the Biron division of Consolidated Water Power & Paper company.

Friends may pay their respects at the Krohn & Berard Funeral home from 9 o'clock Thursday morning until time of services.

Carolina War Games End in U. S. Victory

Fort Bragg, N. C. (AP) The Carolina war games ended today in complete victory by U. S. forces.

Umpires said that the 43rd and 28th infantry divisions, aided by 6,000 paratroopers of the 82nd airborne division who jumped over the weekend, "knocked out" the enemy aggressor.

Woody Herm Signed for C

Woody Herman, musician's musician and favorite of young and old, will bring "the herd" to Wisconsin Rapids for the National Cranboree ball Saturday, September 29.

One of the most versatile of orchestras and long at the top of "big name band" popularity lists, it will be the first appearance in central Wisconsin for the Milwaukee-
born maestro.

Rounds Metcalf, dance chairman, in making the announcement today, said "selection of an orchestra for the Cranboree ball at the fieldhouse is something the committee has learned of considerable community interest. Several top bands were considered and Woody Herman was chosen only after a great many expressed a desire to hear Woody with his clarinet and dance to the 'Herman Herd.'"

Although Herman carries 15 men and a girl vocalist, Dolly Houston, there will be no increase in admission prices over the last
