Sunday service Sunday evening, the Rev. Alfred W. Swan of Madison will preach on "The Protestant Program." The service, sponsored by the Wisconsin Rapids Ministerial association, will be held in the Congregational church, starting at 7:45.

Dr. Swan, minister of First Congregational church of Madison, is a member of the Committee for Religious Liberty which is affiliated with the Wisconsin Council of Churches. At the November 5 election, Wisconsin voters will decide for or against a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would authorize public provision for transportation of children to and from parochial and private schools. At present, a major effort of the Committee for Religious Liberty, representative of the Protestant leadership in Wisconsin, is a presentation of the case against the proposed amendment.

Dr. Swan, in the course of his sermon, will discuss some of the proposed amendment.

The service is open to all.
