Catherine L. Feldner, B. Buehler Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Buehler, who were married on Thursday evening, February 5, at the Sacred Heart Catholic church in Nekoosa, are now on a wedding trip and will be at home after February 20 in Nekoosa, where the bride, the former Catherine L. Feldner, is manager of the Nekoosa Beauty Shop and the groom an employe in the laboratory of the Nekoosa-Edwards Paper company.

The petite bride selected a soft blue suit with turf tan and beige accessories for the informal service and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and blue bells. The beige and turf tan was repeated in the costume of her attendant Miss Martha Wolfe, who wore a suit of beige and accessories of the tan, and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

Louis Buehler attended his brother and A. S. Larsen ushered. The bride was given in marriage by her brother Vernon Feldner.

After the service a wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Witter in Wisconsin Rapids, 24 guests being seated at a T-shaped table. The blue and white of the bridal bouquet was repeated in the table decorations in the center floral piece of lilies-of-the-valley and the blue bells, and blue tapers. A three-tiered ice cream wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride. Mrs. Maurice Peerenboom, pianist, and Mrs. Harvey Grover, vocalist, furnished music for the wedding breakfast. Later friends and relatives were guests at a reception at the Nekoosa home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mildred Feldner.

Mr. Buehler is the son of Mrs. John Buehler sr. of Nekoosa and a graduate of Alexander high school and the University of Wisconsin. His bride is a graduate of the Stevens Point high school and the Milwaukee School of Beauty Culture.

Out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Crosby, Wendell Burg and Mrs. Arthur Schneider of Stevens Point, Mrs. August Buehler and August Buehler of LaCrescent, Minn., and Mrs. Sam Bertrand of Owen.

Sisters Olivia, Joan Compete in Academy Award Balloting

Hollywood—(AP)—It will be sister against sister in the balloting for the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences "Oscars."

Olivia De Havilland and her sister Joan Fontaine both have been placed in nomination by a committee of the academy. Miss De Havilland for her work in "Hold Back the Dawn," and Joan, who dropped the family name of De Havilland for movie identifcation, because of her outstanding performance in "Suspicion."

Bette Davis Competes

Competitors with them will be Bette Davis, twice an academy winner, for "The Little Foxes," Barbara Stanwyck for "The Ball of Fire," and Greer Garson for "Blossoms in the Dust."

Orson Welles scored a triple with the nominating committee, which chose him as one of the five candidates for acting honors, picked his movie as one of the 10 best, and named him as a candidate for the best direction of the year,—all because of "Citizen Kane."

None of the actors named this year has ever won an academy award. Besides Welles they are Gary Cooper in "Sergeant York," Cary Grant in "Penny Serenade," Walter Huston in "All That Money Can Buy," and Robert Montgomery in "Here Comes Mr. Jordan."

Picture nominations are "Citizen Kane," "Blossoms in the Dust," "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," "Hold Back the Dawn," "How Green was My Valley," "The Little Foxes," "The Maltese Falcon," "One Foot in Heaven," "Suspicion," and "Sergeant York."

Supporting Actors

Supporting actor nominations: Walter Brennen "Sergeant York," Charles Coburn "The Devil and Miss Jones," Donald Crisp "How Green Was my Valley," James Gleason "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," and Sydney Greenstreet in "The Maltese Falcon."

Supporting actresses: Sara Allgood in "How Green was My Valley," Mary Astor "The Great Lie" Patricia Collinge "The Little Foxes," Teresa Wright "The Little Foxes" and Margaret Wycherly "Sergeant York."

Reunion for Daughter, Father After 20 Years

Fort Sheridan, Ill.—(AP)—Sergeant Fred Whitworth, 51, who has been in the army for 25 years, was reunited Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Walter H. Henry, of Milwaukee, Wis., whom he had not seen in 20 years.

Sgt. Whitworth, who was in the army during the last war, was divorced from Anita Rothenmar, of Racine, Wis., in 1923, when their child was only a few months old.

About four months ago, the daughter wrote the war department seeking to trace her father's whereabouts. He recently was transferred here and the reunion followed.
